

Hey Woodland Family

A “Praise Caravan” is Coming!

As you know, this Sunday is a fifth Sunday. Our plan, as announced last Sunday, is to contact and honor as many of our homebound as possible in a similar way to our Christmas caroling.

The plan is as follows:

- Go in the name of Jesus to lead each contact in musical praise to the Lord, encourage with scripture, and to pray specifically for them.
- Travel in a “Praise Caravan”
- Each family driving to homes in their vehicles for social distancing, but then either waving and singing from your car, getting out curbside, or gathering in family groups in the yard. In this way, whatever your physical condition, or comfort level of social contact, you can be a part of sharing Christ’s love with those who can’t come physically to church anymore. We will meet at the church at 5:30 Sunday to decorate cars with balloons, signs, etc. if you will allow it, and to give instructions, song sheets, and snacks for the road. We want to make this festive as well as reverent for our homebound, but also for the people of Jackson as representatives of Christ.
- Please let us know if you are planning to participate by Thursday noon so we can know how to plan and organize. Contact us Via Facebook, email or call the church office.
- The church vans are available to those who would like to participate, but rather not drive.
